

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR SELF-PROCLAIMED ARTISTS AND WRITERS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: CECELIA TABOIS

FEEL THE VISION – CAPITAL ONE HALL

Monday, February 6, 2023, McLean, Virginia – Feel The Vision festival comes to Tysons to showcase talented musicians, dancers, and artists for three days in Capital One Hall’s Vault theatre:

March 9th: Cancer Can Road Benefit that serves musicians facing aggressive cancer by providing them a lasting legacy and features the talented Kara and Matty D.

March 10th: A Reggae Music Journey Benefit with the distinguished Miss Pat Chin, co-founder of VP Records in New York City, presents the renowned reggae artist, Nadine Sutherland, and Image Band in support of her VandP Foundation. Miss Pat will answer questions and have a booksiging.

March 11th: Milonga de Elegancia and Tysons Strauss Ball features Todd and Migle, dance performers for over twenty years, brings an elegant evening of dancing to conclude this festival.

Before each event, mixed media artist, Susan Livingston, and sculptor/jewelry designer, Joyce Zipperer, will exhibit their artwork.

Details on all these events can be found here: <https://www.iaspaw.org/upcoming-events> and tickets are available here: <https://www.capitalonehall.com/events/detail/iaspaw-feel-the-vision>.

IASPAW (International Association of Self-Proclaimed Artists and Writers) is a registered 501(2)(3) nonprofit organization that offers Creative Souls and opportunity to share their work on its website and at its events to foster global harmony through the arts. Founded on the premise that many talented artists and writers go unrecognized and unappreciated for their creative contributions to society, and thus, need a venue for artistic expression to promote their work.

TABOIS GALERIE collaborates with IASPAW to hold art exhibitions to provide exposure for self-proclaimed and emerging artists who are often unrecognized and unknown to the public.

1800 Old Meadow Road, No. 1218, Mclean, Virginia 22102
EIN: 81-5319144 ~ 703-442-7588 ~ info@IASPAW.org

